

September 10, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Joyce Mahr (614) 475-2509      or      Karen Eylon, (614) 418-9114
director@visitgahanna.com

45th FLEA MARKET PROMISES ABUNDANT OFFERING

GAHANNA, Ohio - Finding the perfect treasure is a fun-filled, long-standing tradition in Gahanna - thanks to the folks at the Gahanna Historical Society. Visitors to the 45th Annual Gahanna Flea Market, held Sunday, September 19, from 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., will experience the joy of finding the ideal collectible or antique, while creating treasured memories!

The Flea Market will be held at the Gahanna Lincoln High School at 140 South Hamilton Rd. It features antiques, handmade crafts and collectables from both local and national artisans, as well as food and entertainment.

"It's a wonderful family event," said Joyce Mahr, event organizer. "It's nostalgic and unique – maybe that's why it's been so popular for 45 years!"

At this year's Flea Market, the Gahanna Historical Society will offer several new culinary herb blends, a sought after item for folks visiting the Herb Capital of Ohio. More vendors than ever before will set up shop on the street to share their crafts and such classic palette pleasers as funnel cakes and French fries will be in abundance.

Attendees from all over the Midwest have made the Gahanna Flea Market a "must do" event for many years. With more than 200 craft, artisan, and antique vendors - finding a treasure is often a reality at this well-known event!

For information about the Gahanna Flea Market, contact the Gahanna Historical Society at (614) 475-2509. For additional information on all there is to see and do in Gahanna contact the Gahanna Convention & Visitors Bureau at 1-866-GAHANNA or www.visitgahanna.com.